

AUSTRALIA MUSLIM ADVOCACY NETWORK

A photograph showing a man and a young child walking away from the camera on a path through a forest. The man is on the right, wearing a dark jacket and blue jeans. The child is on the left, wearing a pink coat and holding a white stuffed animal. Sunlight filters through the trees, creating a warm, golden glow.

Passionate
about the future of Australian Muslims?

So are we.

WE ARE LOOKING FOR A GRADUATE WHO IS PASSIONATE ABOUT IMPROVING THE SECURITY AND WELLBEING OF THE AUSTRALIAN MUSLIM COMMUNITY.

MALE AND FEMALE APPLICANTS ARE ENCOURAGED TO APPLY.

FOR THE RIGHT CANDIDATE, THIS IS AN OPPORTUNITY TO CONTRIBUTE TO A TEAM ENGAGING DIRECTLY WITH THE AUSTRALIAN PARLIAMENT.

AUSTRALIA MUSLIM ADVOCACY NETWORK

Be mentored on:

Political strategy, including engagement with Australian parliamentary system and Government departments

Contributing to collective strategy discussions

Relationship building with political offices

Media engagement and messaging

Communications with external stakeholders

Submission drafting on policy or law

Research of law or policy

You will already have:

Very good emotional intelligence and interpersonal skills | A sense of compassion and social justice | The confidence and maturity to eventually work with senior stakeholders | Well-developed consultation skills (research, analysis, presentation, and attention to detail) | Very good problem-solving skills – an analytical, innovative, and creative mindset | Very good written and verbal communication skills | The ability to be self-directed and an independent contributor to the team | A bachelor degree in law, policy, justice or journalism or another relevant professional background.

Initially, this position will be part-time, but has a potential to expand. Remuneration will be commensurate with experience. Send your resume and a cover letter (in PDF format) to advocacy@aman.net.au by Monday, 9 December 2019. Enquiries can be made to the same email.

AUSTRALIA MUSLIM ADVOCACY NETWORK

ABOUT US

AMAN's vision is to foster social harmony through policy dialogue, political advocacy and media engagement.

In its first 100 days of operation, AMAN has played a pivotal role in drawing together two joint submissions from the Australian Muslim Community, supporting Muslim advocacy with media and government roundtables, and engaging with the parliamentary system.

The candidate will be interviewed by members of the AMAN board. For more details on the Board and organisation, visit: www.aman.net.au