RAMADAN KAREEM

Assalamo Alaikum Warahamatullahi Wabarakatuh

It is indeed a great pleasure for me to extend to the Muslim Community of Australia the sincerest wishes of RAMADAN KAREEM on behalf of the Australian Federation of Islamic Councils.

On behalf of the AFIC Executive Committee and AFIC Staff, it is my great pleasure to send our very best wishes and prayers during the holy month of Ramadan. May Allah (swt) grant His Choicest Blessings on all Muslims and all humanity and in particular those who are facing hardship and difficulty around the world.

During the holy month of Ramadan I request the Muslim community to share this holy month with our fellow Australians by inviting them to Iftar and extending them our traditional Muslims hospitality and explaining the virtues of Ramadan to them.

It is important to impress on our non Muslim friends that Muslims throughout the world observe fast from dawn to dusk very strictly and try to reform their lives in conformity with the values of humanity and the wishes of God, our Creator and Sustainer.

May the blessings of this holy month of Ramadan permeate the entire human kind and bring peace, security, stability and hope for all peoples of the world.

Wassalam

Ikebal Adam Patel,

President.

Australian Federation of Islamic Councils.
