

Australian International Islamic College

Congratulations to all our participants in the ICQ Annual Quran Competition

Australian International Islamic College (AIIC) came out with flying colors in this year's Annual Quran Recitation Competition, held at the Islamic College of Brisbane at Karawatha on 26th July 2009.

This competition encourages students to strive hard in learning the proper way of reading the Quran, while also strengthening their intention and faith. It also encourages parents and teachers involved in the noble cause of learning and teaching Quran.

Eight contestants participated from our College in the competition. Five of our students won the prizes. Names of participating and winning students are summarized in the table with their respective age groups.
