

Interfaith Youth Camp

December 4th 5th & 6th 2009

Tallebudgera Active Recreation Centre

The Australian Federation of Islamic Councils (AFIC) & Islamic Council of Qld Inc. (ICQ Inc.) is holding a Three (3) Day Interfaith Youth Camp for Male Youths from 15-18 years of age and of differing multicultural/religious backgrounds. They will have the opportunity to have fun, get active, work in teams, experience challenging activities and develop confidence and self esteem as well as making new friends.

The main focus of the camp will be on Team Building – Encouraging and exploring the concepts of the dynamics of the group, conflict resolution, negotiation, fellowship/friendship and loyalty.

There are many fun activities on offer at this fun recreation centre that will help in the team building process. Some of these activities include the following: (all activities are fully supervised and led by fully qualified instructors)

Beach Games Canoeing Team Challenges Orienteering

Fencing Raft Building High & Low Ropes Pool Games

Catapults Court & Field Sports Problem Solving etc.

The facilities have cabin style accommodation and full on site catering, including ranges of special dietary needs that may be required.

So come and have some FUN get ACTIVE and make some

NEW FRIENDS!
