

GENERATION JIHAD HOMEGROWN

BASSAM HAMZY

Originally from Auburn

Jailed convicted murderer and a believer in violent Salafist jihad is still an influential figure and has an almost mythical status among some radicals.

AL-RISALAH BOOKSTORE

Restwell St, Bankstown

Doubles as a gym and community centre. Mustapha al-Majzoub, an extremist preacher known to law-enforcement agencies, gave his last Australian lecture in the bookstore before being killed in Syria late last year.

GLOBAL ISLAMIC YOUTH CENTRE

The centre operates from Macquarie St, Liverpool.

6TH PILLAR

A reference to jihad or holy war

Many of last year's Muslim rioters favoured 6th Pillar t-shirts bought from the Al-Risalah Islamic Bookstore on Restwell Street, Bankstown.

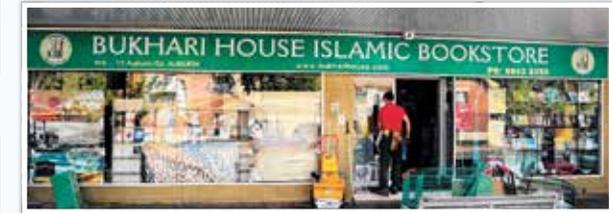

GENERATION JIHAD HOMEGROWN

BUKHARI HOUSE ISLAMIC BOOKSTORE

Run by Sheik Feiz Mohammed

The book store doubles as a prayer hall on Auburn Rd, Auburn.

MILAD BIN AHMAD-SHAH AL-AHMADZAI

A court heard counter-terrorism police have had him under surveillance for four years. He was arrested at his Auburn home on Monday.

BROTHERS 4 LIFE

Muslim gang founded by Bassam Hamzy

Specialises in extortion and drug supply. Was involved in a shooting death in Greenacre last year.

HIZB UT-TAHRIR

Spokesperson Uthman Badar, 28, says the movement is not extreme.

Based at Dar al-Arqam Centre on Waterloo Rd, Greenacre.

