

Ethnic Communities Council of Queensland

THERE IS AN ELECTION COMING IN QUEENSLAND
WITHIN THE NEXT TWELVE MONTHS

TELL ECCQ WHAT ISSUES YOU THINK SHOULD BE HIGHLIGHTED IN THE LEAD UP TO THE ELECTION AS PART OF
OUR WORK ADVOCATING FOR MIGRANT AND PEOPLE OF REFUGEE BACKGROUND COMMUNITIES

ECCQ IS HOLDING A WORKSHOP FOR MEMBERS OF
YOUR ASSOCIATION OR COMMUNITY TO IDENTIFY AND DISCUSS THE ISSUES THAT CONCERN YOU.

WHERE: ECCQ House, 253 Boundary Street
WHEN: Saturday 22nd November, 10am - 1pm

What is the workshop for?

- The Ethnic Communities Council of Queensland is the state's peak body for migrant and refugee communities. Part of ECCQ's role is to make political parties and candidates more aware of issues affecting people from different cultural and linguistic backgrounds.
- The workshop is to give people in your community the chance to let ECCQ know what issues concern people you.

The workshop will also give basic information on:

- how the voting system works in Queensland,
- how people can make sure they are on the Electoral Roll and that their correct address is listed,
- how to raise your views and concerns with your local Member of Parliament and all the candidates at election time.

ECCQ will not use these meetings to try to influence you or your community about who you should vote for.

If you are interested in attending this workshop with ECCQ please contact Andrew Bartlett (Policy and Advocacy Consultant) or Sharon Orapeleng (SECA Coordinator) on 3844 9166 or Email: administration@eccq.com.au
