In-service Development Training Program in Interfaith Understanding and Dialogue
Proudly funded by the Queensland Government through Multicultural Affairs Queensland

All members of faith, multicultural, educational and social communities, institutions and organizations and governmental agencies are cordially invited to participate in an

In-service Development Training Program in Interfaith Understanding and Dialogue

organized by the Multi-Faith Centre, Griffith University

Duration: April – December, 2008

Program (dates and venues to be confirmed)

Attend a flexible series of free learning opportunities to gain an appreciation of the vision of interfaith dialogue and deepen your understanding of diverse faiths, including

- workshops on key principles, ideas, experiences and skills in interfaith dialogue;
- talks by faith leaders and educators on the basic principles, values, doctrines and practices of diverse faiths;
- observing and/or participating (where appropriate) in rituals and significant holy faith festivals or ceremonies;
- attending various thematic interfaith dialogue-forums hosted or co-sponsored by the Multi-Faith Centre in cooperation with diverse faith communities and institutions;
- meditation sessions or programs.

Participants will receive an “interfaith passport” documenting participation in diverse faith and interfaith events or ceremonies and a Multi-Faith Centre certificate on completion of the program.
