At the height of his career in the mid 1970's, Cat Stevens, discontent with the excesses of fame and fortune, abandoned the music business. He had album sales of over 40 million and sold out stadiums across the globe. In Australia, during the 1970's almost one in two households owned a Cat Stevens album. In WILD WORLD, the musical journey of Cat Stevens is traced from his teenage years in the West End of London, through his traumatic illness and explosive successes, to his near drowning and subsequent conversion to Islam. Through words and music, you will be taken on a journey that was the Cat Stevens legend. Paul Dillon has had a life-long love affair with the music and poetic lyrics of this fabulous songwriter.

"The standing ovation and the fact that the audience nearly blew the roof off with their thunderous applause, said it all" - The Roxy
