Invitation

Islamic Finance Symposium to be hosted by Griffith University on Monday, 4 April 2011.

The Islamic Finance Symposium aims to bring together industry, academics and politicians to discuss the emergence of Islamic banking and finance in global financial markets and efforts by governments (through regulatory and tax initiatives) to facilitate it. This is an initiative of Griffith University, Griffith Islamic Research Unit and Department of Accounting, Finance and Economics.

The 2011 Symposium will be held the Griffith University's South Bank campus located on the fringe of Brisbane's central business district.

If you are interested in accepting our invitation would you please RSVP by latest 18th March 2011.

Registration is open to individuals, industry, government representatives and academics who are interested in Islamic finance. While registration is free numbers are limited and attendees will need to register by Monday 18th March 2011. Please feel free to forward information about the Symposium to interested parties.

General enquiries about the symposium (including paper submissions and registration) should be directed to or Dr Mahmood Nathie at m.nathie@griffith.edu.au

Yours sincerely
