

Multicultural Women in Business

Workshop 1 – Reading your figures for business survival

Small business operators need to be savvy to survive.

Figures for sales, assets, liabilities and net profit contain vital information for the owner. If you want to be around for the next boom, this workshop's tools are for you!

Open to women both new to and established in business with a multicultural background.

Co-hosted by:

The Lord Mayors Multicultural Unit and Brisbane International Business Women (BIBW)

Highlights:

Cr. Angela Owen Taylor will officially launch the event • Networking with like minded women in business
Key organisations will provide finance information • Hands on financial activities with easy to follow steps
Lucky door prize • Light refreshments

Guest Speaker: Dimity Dornan

Dimity Dornan is a Speech Pathologist, Managing Director and Founder of Hear and Say, a not-for-profit centre which helps deaf children to listen and speak. Dimity is also the founder of Hear and Say World Wide which teaches professionals globally.

Among her many achievements she was awarded the Australian Social Entrepreneur of the Year (2005) for her work.

Workshop Presenter: Tami Harriot

As the Westpac Women's Markets Manager, Tami Harriott has over 16 years experience in consumer and commercial banking in Australia and the USA.

Tami also worked in small business herself, so she really understands the challenges facing entrepreneurial women in today's competitive environment.

Tami has an MBA and a masters in International Business.

Venue: Brisbane Room Level 1, City Hall, Ann St, Brisbane
Date: 9:00am for 9:30am – 12:00pm, Friday 24th April 2009
Admission: Free of charge/Bookings are essential
RSVP: bibwomen@gmail.com by 15 April 2009
Dress: Smart Casual or Business Attire

For further information please contact: Georgiana Poulter – Ph. 3365 6487

Limited Seats - Book Now!

A joint initiative of

&

Brisbane
International
Business Women

Dedicated to a better Brisbane