

'Islamic Legal Perspectives Conference'

School of Law & Justice, Southern Cross University

Date: 26 July 2007 (Thursday)

Time: 9am-4pm

Venue: Lord Byron Resort, Byron Bay

An International Conference of contemporary interest and global dimension, it showcases two regional Islamic Law experts from Malaysia, Professor Haji Sulaiman Abdullah (a past President of the Malaysian Bar) and Professor Mehrun Siraj (a former Commissioner of the Malaysian Human Rights Commission), both of whom are Adjunct Professors of the International Islamic University in Malaysia. They will speak on Islamic Perspectives on Criminal Law and Family Law respectively. There will be an afternoon Forum for comparative critique, chaired by Mr George Negus, host of SBS 'Dateline' who authored 'The World From Islam'. Other Forum invitees are Mrs Jill Cowley and Mr Ralph James from the School of Law & Justice, Southern Cross University.

This Conference earns CLE points.

Registration fee $80 per person (student/concession $50) -
Includes morning and afternoon tea.

Conference delegates enjoy a discounted Byron Bay Writers Festival Pass at $145 for the 3-day period (normally $160). The Festival is from 27-29 July 2007.
