Our Health Our Food Our Bodies

Don't Forget To Brush!

It is very important to keep our teeth & gums clean – brush your teeth at least twice a day, the most important time being at night before going to bed. Stay away from any foods that contain sugar such as sweets, lollies & soft drinks. Don't drink too much fruit juice as these contain acids, which can cause bacteria & decay in your teeth.

These simple steps every day can prevent lots of dental problems in the future inshallah.

Zaky's Tip: Brush your teeth with every Wudu.

Eat Good Foods

It is best to eat lots of vegetables & fruits, raw if possible, everyday as they contain vitamins & minerals that keep you healthy & strong. Don't eat too much food containing fat or sugar, as these cause problems in your heart & blood.

Zaky's Tip: Drink lots of water with your meals.

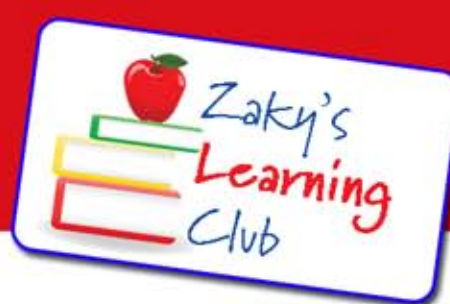

Get Moving!

Our bodies need to be moved regularly to stay fit & healthy. We must try our best to exercise at least three times a week for around 20 minutes. This will allow our bodies to burn off calories & make our muscles strong. Don't watch TV or play computer games for longer than 30 minutes at a time. You can have more fun playing sport outside or riding your bike or scooter.

Tip: Take a walk with mum and dad

Ramadan with Zaky

Ramadan is the greatest month of the year and a time to get many extra rewards. You should try your best to increase your worship and good deeds.

Zaky's advice for Ramadan

- 1- Try not to over eat at Iftar time.
- 2- Make plenty of Dua just before you break your fast, this is one of the times Allah accepts your Dua.
- 3- Try not to eat foods that can give you bad breath or make you thirsty the next day...foods such as garlic & onion.
- 4- Wake up before Fajr and make your Suhoor even if you only eat one date and drink water.
- 5- Wear your best clothes and smell your best & go to the mosque for Isha and Taraweeh prayer... remember don't go to the mosque if you have eaten smelly foods such as raw garlic or onion.
- 6- Take some dates or sweets to offer to your brothers and sisters at the mosque.
- 7- Read, memorise and learn many new Surahs from the Quran & try to avoid watching TV.
- 8- Invite family and friends to Iftar.
- 9- Avoid using foul language or getting angry.
- 10- Try to continue doing all the above after Ramadan.

The Qur'an was first revealed in the month of Ramadan!

AHADITH ON RAMADAN

The Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) said: If a person does not avoid false talk & bad behaviour while fasting, then Allah does not care if he eats or drinks.
(Bukhari, Muslim)

Our beloved Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) said: Eat your Suhoor meal, for there is a blessing in it.
(Bukhari, Muslim)

The Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) said: He who feeds the one fasting for Iftar earns the same reward as the one who fasted without taking away any of their reward.
(Tirmidhi)
